MIDEAM Ltd gives you choices about the data we collect, and when asked to provide personal data, you may decline. However, please note that if you choose not to provide the personal data that MIDEAM Ltd requires to enter into a contract with you, you will not be able to take up residence in any of the properties that we manage.

Depending on how you interact with Host, be it through a room booking or being a guarantor, the data we collect may vary and can include the following:

3. When we collect your information

We collect information: (i) you give us; (ii) information from your use of our products, services or our website; (iii) information provided to us by third parties.

4. How we use your information

We use, and share, your data where:

- you have agreed or explicitly consented to the using of your data in a specific way (you may withdraw your consent at any time);
- use is necessary in relation to a service or a contract that you have entered or because you have asked for something to be done so you can enter into a contract with us.

5. Implications of not providing your data

If you do not provide information we may not be able to:

- provide requested products or services to you;
- to continue to provide and/or renew existing products or services
- assess suitability; and

We will tell you when we ask for information which is not a contractual requirement or is not needed to comply with our legal obligations.

6. How we keep your information secure

We have developed internal measures to ensure personal information is processed on an “as needed basis”. We endeavour to have in place appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect your information.

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal data breach and we will notify you and any applicable regulator of a breach where we are legally required to do so.

7. How long we keep your personal information for

It is our aim to only hold your data for as long as this is necessary.

We will only retain your personal data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes for which it was collected, and to comply with any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements.

By law we have to keep basic information about our customers including Contact, Identity, Financial, Contractual and Transaction Data for six years after they cease being customers for tax purposes.

In some circumstances you can ask us to delete your data:

8. How to exercise your information rights including the right to object

You have the right, without undue delay, to:

- Find out if we use your information, access your information and receive copies of your information.
- have inaccurate/incomplete information corrected and updated.
- object to particular use of your personal data for our legitimate business interests or direct marketing purposes.
- in certain circumstances, to have your information deleted or our use of your data restricted.
- to withdraw consent at any time where processing is based on consent.
